Watchmen As Literature A Critical Study Of The Graphic Novel

comics as literature? - EKPIA - 'comics as literature' view. and although some reasons for resisting that view are misguided, i shall argue that there are other good reasons for being hesitant about treating comics as a form of literature. this leaves us in an impasse — we have reason both to classify comics as literature and to resist such classification. watchmen: comics and literature collide - case with watchmen. comics and literature collided and there is no language to discuss what has come out of that collision. through chapter analysis, character study, and inquiry into the postmodern mood this project will demonstrate watchmen as a turning point in the discussion of comics and literature. i. introduction - irbrary.oregonstate - requirements that classic literary novels meet under analysis, i will consider watchmen to be literature worthy of a place beside other literary works, whether they contain images or not, and that by extension, that some graphic novels do deserve the discerning label of "literature." preface/introduction to the work in question
